South Carolina LIFELINE and LINK-UP Programs

The LIFELINE assistance program provides a monthly credit of $13.50 on a residential landline telephone bill.

LINK-UP provides a 50 percent reduction of the installation and service charges (up to $30) to qualifying residential customers.

You may qualify for LIFELINE and LINK-UP if you receive one of the following:

- Family Independence
- Food Stamps
- Medicaid

For more information about LIFELINE and LINK-UP contact the Office of Regulatory Staff

The LIFELINE and LINK-UP programs offer monetary assistance to qualified residential telephone customers.

They are designed to ensure that basic telephone connection (hookup) and service remain affordable to all S.C. residents. These programs are funded through the Universal Service Fund, which is administered in South Carolina by the S.C. Office of Regulatory Staff, 1441 Main St., Ste 300, Columbia, SC 29201.
